MOTORS LIQUIDATION COMPANY GUC TRUST'S RESPONSE TO JAKE W. RODD'S MOTION FOR ENFORCEMENT OF OFFER ORDER

TO THE HONORABLE ROBERT E. GERBER, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The Motors Liquidation Company GUC Trust (the "GUC Trust"), formed by the above-captioned debtors (collectively, the "Debtors") in connection with the Debtors' Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan, dated March 18, 2011 (as may be amended, supplemented, or modified from time to time, the "Plan"), submits this Response to Jake W. Rodd's Motion for Enforcement of Offer Order (ECF No. 11069) (the "Motion"), and respectfully represents:

Preliminary Statement

- 1. Jake W. Rodd ("Mr. Rodd" or the "Claimant") filed a claim that is time barred under the applicable statute of limitations. Nonetheless, in order to avoid the cost of litigation and appeal, the GUC Trust offered a settlement to Mr. Rodd after explaining the significance of the statute of limitations. After agreeing to settle his claim at the amount offered by the GUC Trust, Mr. Rodd declined to execute the stipulation to settle the claim and endeavored to find ways to obtain a greater recovery. Mr. Rodd now asks that his claim be mediated notwithstanding the fact that, only a year ago, he filed an opposition to the implementation of alternative dispute resolution procedures in these cases. Mr. Rodd also asserts that counsel for the GUC Trust acted improperly during negotiations on his claim or provided false information. In efforts that would neither establish the merits of his claim nor demonstrate that mediation is appropriate, Mr. Rodd also seeks to subpoena several individuals, including an associate of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and a former chairman and chief executive officer of General Motors Corporation.
- 2. As both a legal matter and a practical matter, Mr. Rodd's request for mediation should be denied. In light of the relatively small size of the claim, the fatal defenses that can be asserted by the GUC Trust that will inform the GUC Trust's willingness to entertain a settlement in a larger range, and the costs of mediation that must be borne by both parties, the request for mediation should be denied so that the GUC Trust can object to the claim on the grounds of the applicable statute of limitations. Mediating the claim would constitute a misuse of the estates' limited resources and would unduly burden Mr. Rodd with out-of-pocket expenses and should therefore be denied.

Background

- 3. Mr. Rodd alleges that he sustained personal injuries on July 14, 2004, in connection with an accident (the "Accident") in Florida involving a vehicle manufactured by the Debtors.
- 4. On June 1, 2009, nearly five years after the Accident, Motors Liquidation Company and certain of its affiliated debtors commenced voluntary cases under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court"), Ch. 11 Case No. 09-50026 (REG).
- 5. The Claimant filed Proof of Claim No. 6916 (the "Claim") against the Debtors on October 6, 2009, asserting an unsecured claim in the amount of $500,000. To the best of the Debtors' knowledge, prior to filing the Claim, the Claimant did not commence an action against the Debtors in any court.
- 6. On February 23, 2010, the Court entered the Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) and General Order M-390 Authorizing Implementation of Alternative Dispute Procedures, Including Mandatory Mediation (ECF No. 5037), which was amended by Order dated October 25, 2010 (ECF No. 7558) (the "ADR Order"). Pursuant to the ADR Order, certain claimants were eligible to participate in alternative dispute resolution if they submitted a letter to the Debtors proposing to cap their claim at a reduced amount (a "Capping Proposal Letter") and the Debtors accepted the reduced cap amount.
- 7. Mr. Rodd filed an objection (the "Objection to ADR Order") (ECF No. 4925) to the Debtors' motion to approve the ADR Order, wherein the Claimant stated that he "[did] not consent to Binding Arbitration," and requested that the Court "exempt [his] claim from Binding Arbitration." The Objection to ADR Order was overruled because, among other reasons, the ADR Order provided for mandatory mediation to be commenced at the sole discretion of the Debtors but did not subject a claimant to mandatory arbitration without its consent.

- 8. By letter dated March 10, 2010, the Claimant submitted a Capping Proposal Letter (ECF No. 5287) that specified a cap amount that was equal to the full amount of the Claim. As such, the Debtors did not accept the cap amount specified in the Claimant's Capping Proposal Letter at that time and, pursuant to the ADR Order, the Claim was not scheduled for alternative dispute resolution.
- 9. Subsequently, the GUC Trust engaged in discussions with the Claimant to settle the Claim in light of the GUC Trust's potential defenses, including the statute of limitations. The GUC Trust explained to Mr. Rodd the statute of limitations issues and its position that the Claim could not stand. Nonetheless, the GUC Trust and Mr. Rodd agreed to settle the Claim by allowing it as a general unsecured claim in the amount of $5,000. As referenced in the Claimant's Motion for Rehearing (as hereinafter defined), the GUC Trust delivered to the Claimant a stipulation (the "Stipulation") reflecting the settlement at $5,000. At no time did the GUC Trust or its counsel instruct Mr. Rodd to sign the Stipulation against his will or attempt to exert undue pressure on Mr. Rodd to execute the Stipulation.
- 10. Mr. Rodd did not execute the Stipulation. On October 24, 2011, the Claimant filed a Motion for Reconsideration/Rehearing of Offer (the "Motion for Rehearing") (ECF No. 11069), wherein he requested (i) "a Reconsideration/Rehearing of my Settlement by the Honorable Robert E. Gerber," and (ii) that the Claimant be furnished with "all paperwork pertinent to the decision for the settlement to be $5,000."
 - 11. On December 9, 2011, Mr. Rodd filed the Motion, wherein he withdrew the Motion for Rehearing and requested that (i) the ADR Order be enforced, (ii) the Court subpoena certain individuals, including an associate of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and a former chairman and chief executive officer of General Motors Corporation, and (iii) the Court inquire why his personal information now appears on Google.

Response

- 12. It appears that Mr. Rodd believes the GUC Trust is asserting that the Claimant is legally bound to settle the Claim at $5,000. The Claimant has not executed the Stipulation, and while oral agreements to settle a claim are enforceable as matter of contract law, see V'Soske v. Barwick, 404 F.2d 495, 499 (2d Cir. 1968), the GUC Trust does not wish to enforce the settlement if Mr. Rodd believes, correctly or incorrectly, that counsel for the GUC Trust forced him into the settlement. The GUC Trust did notify Mr. Rodd, however, that it would object to the Claim in the near future.
- has since endeavored to find a means to procure a higher distribution through mediation. The ADR Order, however, does not compel either the Debtors or the GUC Trust to mediate his Claim and, in fact, has not to date resulted in mediation of any claim assessed in an amount less than $1,000,000. As a practical matter, the GUC Trust has determined that mediation of this Claim would be a misuse of resources for all parties. As explained below, the ability of the GUC Trust to offer a higher settlement through mediation is limited by the view that the Claim is time barred under the applicable statute of limitations. Thus, it would be irrational for the GUC Trust to bear the cost of mediating the Claim, which could easily surpass the value of the settlement previously reached by a substantial amount. As also explained below, mediation is not a costless exercise for Mr. Rodd either, as he would have to bear half of the mediation costs. It simply would not be fair to saddle Mr. Rodd with costs that would exceed the market value of any settlement offer the GUC Trust would be prepared to make.

A. The Claim Is Time Barred Under the Applicable Statute of Limitations

- 14. As previously held by this Court, a personal injury claim that is time barred under the applicable statute of limitations may be disallowed by the bankruptcy court. See Transcript of March 1, 2011 Hearing at 71-76, In re Motors Liquation Co., No. 09-50026 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2011), annexed hereto as Exhibit "A."
- under section 1334(b), the court applies the choice of law rules of the forum state to determine the applicable statute of limitations." Adelphia Commc'ns Corp. v. Bank of Am. (In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp.), 365 B.R. 24, 57 n.136 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (citing Official Comm. of Asbestos Claimants of G-I Holdings, Inc. v. Heyman, 277 B.R. 20, 29-30 (S.D.N.Y. 2002)). In this instance, the forum state is New York, which has enacted a statute of limitations "borrowing statute," which provides: "An action based upon a cause of action accruing without [New York State] cannot be commenced after the expiration of the time limited by the laws of either [New York State] or the place without [New York State] where the cause of action accrued, except that where the cause of action accrued in favor of a resident of [New York State] the time limited by limitations with respect to the Claim is the shorter limitations period under either New York law or the law of the state where the cause of action accrued. In order to determine the state where the cause of action accrued. In order to determine the state where the cause of action accrued, an inquiry must be made as to the specific cause of action being asserted. While Mr. Rodd does not articulate a specific cause of action, it appears that he is attempting to assert a claim for strict products liability and/or negligence, each of which accrued in Florida, the place of the accident giving rise to the injury. Martin v. Julius Dierck Equip. Co., 374 N.E.2d 97 (N.Y. 1978) (holding that a negligence and strict products liability claim asserted in New York by a resident of the District of Columbia accrued in Virginia, the state where the physical injury occurred). Consequently, the Claim is time-barred if the limitations period for asserting a strict products liability and negligence claim had run under either New York or Florida law.

i. The Claim Is Time-Barred Under New York Law

17. Under New York law, the limitations period to assert a negligence claim is governed under Rule 214(5) of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, which provides that a negligence claim must be brought within three years. N.Y. C.P.L.R. 214(5). Additionally, the limitations period under New York law to assert a strict products liability claim is also three years. See Victorson v. Bock Laundry Mach. Co., 335 N.E.2d 275, 279 (N.Y. 1975) (statute of limitations "governing injuries to person or property are those properly applicable to a strict products liabilities claims") (citations omitted). As the Accident occurred on July 14, 2004, under the New York limitations period, Mr. Rodd had until July 14, 2007 to timely file a strict products liability or negligence claim against the Debtors, which he neglected to do.

ii. The Claim Is Time-Barred Under Florida Law

18. Under Florida law, the limitations period to assert a negligence claim is governed under section 95.11 of the Florida Statutes, which provides that such a claim must be brought within four years. Fla. Stat. § 95.11(3)(a). The limitations period to assert a products liability claim under Florida law is also four years. Id. § 95.11(3)(e). As such, in order to have been timely under Florida law, an action must have been commenced not later than July 14, 2008. Thus, regardless whether the applicable statute of limitations is that of New York or Florida, the Claim is clearly time barred under either scenario.

B. Mediating the Claim Would Be a Misuse of Resources

19. Pursuant to the ADR Order, unless otherwise agreed between the parties, the GUC Trust and Mr. Rodd would each be required to equally share the fees and costs charged by the American Arbitration Association and the selected arbitrator(s). The GUC Trust estimates that such fees and costs would approximate $5,000. Additionally, pursuant to the ADR Order, each party would be required to incur their own costs to travel to one of the five cities in which mediation is offered.³ Thus, Mr. Rodd would be required to bear the cost of traveling from Jacksonville, Florida to Dallas, Texas, the closest mediation location to him. These costs are exclusive of any lodging and other incidental costs that Mr. Rodd would have to bear. The GUC Trust would also be required to prepare mediation briefs, all for a matter which it ultimately cannot settle beyond a nominal amount because of the view that the Claim is time barred under applicable statutes of limitations.

20. For these reasons, mediation is simply not a cost-effective means to resolve the Claim and the business judgment of the GUC Trust to proceed with an objection to the Claim is justified in the view of Mr. Rodd's disavowance of the prior settlement. Ideally, the

GUC Trust would like to settle the Claim with Mr. Rodd pursuant to the terms of the Stipulation to which he had previously agreed to. However, in the event Mr. Rodd declines to do so, the resources of the estates would best be served through the GUC Trust filing an objection to the Claim in this Court.

WHEREFORE the GUC Trust respectfully requests that the relief requested in the Motion be denied.

Page 23 PROCEEDINGS 1 2 THE COURT: Please be seated. Okay. We're here on 3 GM, Motors Liquidation Company. Reserved matters, the Smalley claim and perhaps some other matters. Who's going to take the lead? Mr. Karotkin? Mr. Smolinsky? 5 6 MR. SMOLINSKY: Good morning, Your Honor. 7 Smolinsky of Weil Gotshal & Manges for the debtors. Your Honor, we served last night an amended agenda. I hope Your 9 Honor received it -10 THE COURT: I did --11 MR. SMOLINSKY: -- albeit late. THE COURT: -- and the first five pages of it gave me 12 13 what I think I need to know. 14 MR. SMOLINSKY: Then maybe we can just --15 THE COURT: So you can let me know whether there were 16 any further consensual resolutions since then or where we 17 stand. 18 MR. SMOLINSKY: The only one, Your Honor, is with 19 respect to Toyota. They will be withdrawing their objection to 20 the unliquidated claims reserve motion. 21 THE COURT: Okay. Fair enough. Do you have a 22 recommendation as to how you'd like to proceed on the 23 remainder? 24 MR. SMOLINSKY: I think, Your Honor, we can just go 25 through the agenda in its order if that's okay with you, Your

Page 24 1 Honor. 2 THE COURT: Go ahead. 3 MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, in connection with 4 confirmation of the plan, as with any liquidating plan, we need to establish reserves in connection with distributions to make 5 6 sure that holders of disputed claims, unliquidated claims, are 7 taken care of. We can't obviously distribute all of our assets to the holders of allowed claims as of that date on the 9 effective date. This is an arduous process that requires a lot 10 of attention to detail to make sure that everyone is protected. 11 That includes not only fully reserving for liquidated filed 12 claims in their full face amount if they're disputed or 13 unresolved but also involves, for example, filers of 14 administrative, secured and priority claims that we may contend 15 later on do not constitute priority claims. We need to reserve 16 unliquidated claims so that if we are successful --17 THE COURT: In other words, if they're not admin 18 claims, they may still be unsecured claims in which case you 19 got to reserve them. 2.0 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. THE COURT: I understand. 21 22 MR. SMOLINSKY: Additionally, we have the JPMorgan 23 litigation, for example, where we are reserving for the full 24 unliquidated amount of the claim. In the event that the committee's lawsuit is successful, they may end up with an

THE COURT: Yeah. Help me understand that because I would have thought that the only way by which that would happen would be if JPMorgan Chase has got to write a check back to the estate for a billion and a half dollars. And then that would, at least seemingly, providing the funding source for that claim.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Well, Your Honor, the plan provides for pro rata distributions of the same consideration for unsecured claims. So if they pay back cash, they're still entitled to their pro rata portion of the New GM securities --

THE COURT: Which would, under the economics of this case, seemingly be a lot less than a billion and a half dollars.

MR. SMOLINSKY: It could be, Your Honor. There would be a trial to determine -- if Your Honor finds that the liens go away but the claims remain as unsecured claims then Your Honor would have to look at the portion that may be still secured and there would have to be an evaluation trial because I think at the end of the day there may still be collateral, some collateral.

THE COURT: I'm with you now. Go on.

MR. SMOLINSKY: So, Your Honor, as we -- we've obviously been on a claims resolution tare the last several months. But we still are left with certain unliquidated claims. In order to establish reserves for those claims, we filed two motions. The first is a fully unliquidated reserve motion. That is for claims that despite our efforts to get a liquidated amount from the claimants, they are still filed in a fully unliquidated amount. And we need to establish reserves for that.

The second motion is for partially unliquidated claims. Those are for claims that have a liquidated amount but there may be language to the extent of and such other amounts as may be later determined or plus interest and fees. And we used the motion to make sure that the cap that we were using, the amount that we were using, for the distributions are acceptable to the claimants.

Let me first deal with the fully unliquidated claims and then come back to the partially. This motion seeks to establish an initial reserve in an amount equal to claims of 420 million dollars set aside for the 1500 or so claims that were attached as exhibits to the motion. Attached to the motion is a declaration of Carrianne Basler who is a managing director of Alix Partners and also a vice president of Motors Liquidation Company. And she has been primarily involved in the claims process.

THE COURT: Just a minute, please, Mr. Smolinsky. I have the same problem I always have with rustling and people on the phone disrupting my courtroom. CourtCall, would you put everybody on mute, please, until I authorize certain people to speak?

Go on, Mr. Smolinsky.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, set forth in the Basler declaration, Ms. Basler has reviewed all of the unliquidated claims on those schedules, has attached numbers to those claims and has determined that a reserve of 370 million dollars should be more than enough to satisfy those unliquidated claims if, as and when they come to be allowed claims. In addition, they've included a fifty million dollar cushion bringing us to the 420 million. But there's perhaps more good news because of the 1500 or so claims that are subject to that motion, we have objected to a large number of them and those objections are pending many of which are being handled on today's calendar. So we believe that by the time the effective date comes, there should only be about 400 claims that will share in that 420 million dollars. So those reserves should be more than sufficient.

There are several buckets which are included in the unliquidated claims reserve. There are the fully unliquidated claims that were filed whether before the bar date or late filed. There are contracts that may be rejected as part of confirmation and those parties will have a period of time after confirmation in which to file rejection damage claims. So they would be included in this reserve. And finally, we thought it was prudent to allow the ability at our discretion to add into the reserve later claims that were inadvertently disallowed. We've now objected successfully to something like 20,000 claims. There's always the possibility of notice issues or whatever and we thought it was prudent to be able to have that cushion available because if they're not taken care of in this motion, if they do come back and have a valid concern about the disallowance, there would be no source in which to take care of them later on.

Additionally, Your Honor, the unliquidated claims motion seeks to establish procedures where we'll able to liquidate claims in the future. And obviously, it's subject to consent by the opposing party and if there's a dispute, we would come back to the Court with respect to that estimation. We don't expect that procedure to be used extensively.

This has been a good opportunity to have lots of discussions with claimants that were on the list either to make them comfortable that they're adequately protected or to allow them to liquidate their claim and to be moved off of this motion and into a separate liquidated claim reserve.

THE COURT: Pause, please, Mr. Smolinsky. Am I correct that where claimants have duly liquidated their claims, at least at this stage, you'd simply reserve for whatever they're asking for?

MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor.

Page 29 1 THE COURT: Okay. 2 MR. SMOLINSKY: So, for example, the Numi (ph.) 3 claim, we are setting aside distributions on account of a 500 4 million dollar claim until that claim is ultimately resolved. THE COURT: Um-hmm. 5 6 MR. SMOLINSKY: So after resolving many parties' formal and informal objections, we are left with just a handful 7 of objections. As I said earlier, the Toyota Corporation 9 objection has been resolved now. Their unliquidated claim will 10 come off of the schedules and will be effectively estimated at 11 zero. Of course, they continue to have claims that are 12 reserved in their full amounts. I think it's seventy plus 13 million dollars that's being set aside for Toyota's claims. 14 That leaves -- and let me just run through the 15 objections. I think there are four objections remaining. 16 first is Edmund Ster --17 (Phone interference) 18 THE COURT: CourtCall, is that coming from people on 19 the phone or is that coming from you? 2.0 THE OPERATOR: All lines are muted and my line has been muted until I just opened it. 21 22 THE COURT: You have any idea why I'm getting all 23 this noise in my courtroom? 24 THE OPERATOR: Your Honor, I'm not seeing line --25 THE COURT: I beg your pardon?

THE OPERATOR: I'm not seeing any noise coming from any line.

THE COURT: It's not what I'm seeing. That's the problem. It's what I'm hearing. All right. Continue, Mr. Smolinsky.

MR. SMOLINSKY: The first remaining objection is Edmund Sterniak. Mr. Sterniak is an equity holder. His claim is that he wants a dollar claim for his shares. We believe that this is a confirmation objection and not an objection to the reserve motion.

The second remaining objection is Sentry Insurance. It seems from Sentry Insurance's papers that they are seeking a reservation of rights under 502(j) to reconsider. For obvious reasons, we don't believe that this is an objection to this motion because we can't reserve for 502(j) reconsiderations. So, of course, their rights are reserved for whatever they're worth to bring motions under 502(j), but we don't believe that that is relevant to the current reserve motion.

The third objection is Sharyl Carter. Ms. Carter, which should be no stranger to this Court, has filed an objection asserting that her claim should be paid in cash rather than in New GM stock. Again, we think that this is a confirmation objection and not an objection to this motion.

Finally, we have Tracy Woody. Ms. Woody has asserted a general unsecured claim in the amount of $39,376.02. I'm not Page 31 sure what Ms. Woody's objection is. We spoke to Ms. Woody. She said the amount's not big enough. We said what would be big enough. She said 40,800 dollars. We said sold. We'll reserve for that amount. She seemed happy with that and then called back later and said that she was no longer happy. So we'll hear from her as to what her continuing objection is. And those are the objections --THE COURT: Let me make sure I understand. You agreed to consensually reserve for 41,000 and you understood her to say that that was insufficient. MR. SMOLINSKY: That's right. She called back and said she spoke to a lawyer and she's no longer accepting of that. Of course, if we did agree with her as to a number, we would take her off this motion and we would treat it as simply a liquidated claim subject to our rights to object to that claim in the future. THE COURT: Okay. MR. SMOLINSKY: I think we'll stop there unless Your Honor has any questions and deal with the partially liquidated motion later. THE COURT: Your recommendation is that I deal with partially liquidated separately? MR. SMOLINSKY: I think so, Your Honor --

MR. SMOLINSKY: -- otherwise it might get confusing.

THE COURT: All right.

Page 32 THE COURT: CourtCall, now take everybody who's on 1 2 the phone and temporarily unmute them. I won't try to make you 3 find particular callers. Is Mr. Sterniak in the courtroom? response. Mr. Sterniak, are you on the phone? No response. 5 Okay. Sentry Insurance. In the courtroom? No. On the phone? 6 No. Sharyl Carter? In the courtroom? No. Ms. Carter, are 7 you on the phone? No. THE OPERATOR: Yes, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: Who just spoke, please? 10 THE OPERATOR: Oh, this is the operator. I was 11 letting you know I'm not shutting down the lines. 12 THE COURT: Oh, okay. Tracy Woody. Ms. Woody, are 13 you in the courtroom? 14 MS. WOODY (TELEPHONICALLY): I'm on the telephone. 15 THE COURT: Okay. Ms. Woody, would you like to be 16 heard on the motion? 17 MS. WOODY: Yes. 18 THE COURT: Go ahead. 19 MS. WOODY: Well, when I was contacted by GM and I 20 talked with an attorney about it, they had indicated that -about a capital reserve of some kind. And when I talked with 21 22 the attorney, they wanted to try to speak for me and I said 23 that would be -- I was advised by my attorney that's not a good 24 idea. And the reason why the cap of reserve I'm having a little difficult with is because I'm still facing ongoing charges for renting a car -- or I should say for using a car that's not my vehicle. And the dispute with the SUV scenario 3 litigation is going on. So I'm still experiencing expenses from that. Also, court costs and so forth. And when I mean 5 court costs, I mean this call and I'm filing these motions, papers and so forth -- fees and everything. That is, I'm still 7 being charged for this. And so, when I think about some of those ongoing expenses, do this litigation, it's still ongoing. And the other problem I have as well is as far as the 10 deadline for objections --11 THE COURT: Just a minute. Pause, please, Ms. Woody. 12 Is that noise on your line or is that on somebody else's line? 13 MS. WOODY: Someone talking? No. I'm in a quiet 14 area. 15 THE COURT: Okay. CourtCall, put everybody else 16 other than Ms. Woody on mute for a moment, please. Continue, 17 please, Ms. Woody. 18 MS. WOODY: Yes, Your Honor. I learned from my 19 episode to be in a quiet spot. But in any event, also, I noticed that the -- on 20 number 3 of the motion that I filed an objection, it says that 21 22 the claim reserve if no estimation objection is timely filed is 23 only ten days and you should be able to -- and I was thinking 24 that since they have -- drawing this information, I have been given probably about 300 documents to review by GM.

says that any type of objections, it's like the documentation they filed. I didn't even see my claim or whether it was litigated in this case. I didn't see any claim related to my claim that I had filed back in October. And I amended the claim just recently. And so, I didn't see any reference to my claim at all in any of the documentation which kind of concerned me. And I was granted an allowable at least proof of claim to litigate in this court regarding the matter against Motor Liquidation.

Also, the fourteen days would allow at least a couple more days to review all this documentation. You know, I'm proceeding pro se at this point. And that's kind of a main thing right there that I was entertaining. In the claim said that if you already filed a proof of claim in accordance with the attached instruction, you didn't need to refile. However, I had to amend the complaint -- the proof of claim because General Motors -- I was directed on their website that said that my claim was zero.

19 THE COURT: Okay.

MS. WOODY: So --

21 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Woody. I take it that 22 takes care of it?

MS. WOODY: Yes.

24 THE COURT: Very well. Mr. Smolinsky, do you want to

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, I'd just note that the ten days that she's talking about I think refers to the timing on the procedures to estimate additional claims. So if we were to file an objection to Ms. Woody's claim, we would do that on the full thirty days notice that we utilize on any claim objection. All we need, Your Honor, is a number. If she wants 60,000 or 70,000, we'll reserve that. But all we need is a number. THE COURT: All right. Ms. Woody, do you have any number other than the approximately 41,000 dollars that they're now prepared to reserve for you on? MS. WOODY: Well, I quess the speedy litigation would help which I'm going to go ahead and start working on. You know, I think maybe if I could just put down, if he wants a number, I'll give them the number. But I don't believe that it was 41. THE COURT: It was 40,800. I gave you the extra 200 bucks. MS. WOODY: Okay. Yes. I think I can go ahead and reserve for that number. THE COURT: All right. Then I think that that issue Thank you very much, Ms. Woody. is now moot. MS. WOODY: Thank you. THE COURT: Have a good day.

You, too.

THE COURT: I should say when setting up the reserve. 4 5 This is not, of course, a claims allowance determination today. 6 MR. SMOLINSKY: Right. 7 THE COURT: Right. MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, unless Your Honor has any 8 9 other questions, before we go on with third party comments 10 generally, because I think there are some parties that want to 11 make some general statements, perhaps we should now go to the partially liquidated, talk about those objections and then 12 13 people --14 THE COURT: Certainly. 15 MR. SMOLINSKY: -- could make reservations of 16 positions. 17 As I said previously, Your Honor, the second motion 18 seeks to cap partially unliquidated claims. We have done our 19 best to address all of the issues that people have raised. We 20 have discussed and dealt with at least twenty parties in this 21 regard. And let me just go to the objections. Before I talk 22 about the formal objections, there was one informal objection 23 that was interposed by the Quanta Site Group and the Edgewater 24 Administrative Site Group. Those are environmental claims.

And we entered into an order, an agreed order, to liquidate their claims for purposes of the reserve and take them out of this motion. And we'll just submit that order to Your Honor.

MR. SMOLINSKY: That leaves only two remaining objections. The first is by Onondaga County.

THE COURT: The other is --

MR. SMOLINSKY: The other --

THE COURT: -- United Technology?

MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. Both of these claims deal with the Onondaga environmental site. As background, Your Honor, the EPA has filed liquidated claims in the amount of over two billion dollars. We have been working with them and are close -- we have agreements in principle on many, many sites and are close with respect to others. And we expect that for the effective date before you will be a stipulation allowing claims by the United States for a multitude of sites. Now, I don't know -- I don't think that Onondaga is necessarily going to be one of them that we get resolved. But I can tell you that with respect to the Onondaga site, there will be a -- the two billion dollars will come to reflect the various resolutions. So that number will come down substantially. But there will be an amount of over a hundred million dollars that will be set aside for Onondaga to protect the continuing dialogue with respect to that site.

THE COURT: Now, pause, Mr. Smolinsky.

I don't know if you can answer this or whether you have to hand off to the U.S. attorney's office. When I've had other similar types of issues in other cases, most obviously Lyondell and Chemtura, the -- I was asked to consider settlements that were quarterbacked by the federal EPA but where the state environmental agencies also coordinated, such as the California Toxic Substances Commission, or whatever the exact name is there. Are we talking about similar types of settlements here where the state and federal governments are going to work hand in hand or is there less coordination in this case than there was is Lyondell and in Chemtura?

MR. SMOLINSKY: I'll let the U.S. attorney speak,
Your Honor. However, I know that there's a lot going on behind the scenes and a lot of discussions taking place. And I think the government expects to lodge those -- those settlements and have a public comment period before they bring it to Your Honor to approve.

THE COURT: All right. I want you to keep talking.

And I want to ask Mr. Jones to be prepared to help me on that when it's his turn to speak.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor. So as not to be lost, I think there could be an impression from reading Onondaga's papers -- Onondaga County's papers, that we are seeking to reserve for that claim at zero dollars. In fact, there's a twelve and a half million dollar claim that was the

Page 39 1 liquidated portion of their claim. THE COURT: Twelve and a half million dollars? 2 3 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. THE COURT: Now, there are two major environmental issues that I'm aware in New York State or at least I think 5 6 there are, one in Onondaga County which is near Syracuse; and 7 the second -- is it Massena which involves the tribe up near the Canadian border? 9 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Okay. Continue. 11 MR. SMOLINSKY: And you might have noticed that New 12 York State had filed an objection as well but that objection 13 has been resolved, allowing for a liquidated claim subject to 14 our continuing rights to object. 15 THE COURT: Okay. Continue. 16 MR. SMOLINSKY: We have attempted to speak to 17 Onondaga County about getting liquidated amounts to the extent 18 that they believe that the twelve and a half million dollars combined with the EPA amount is not sufficient. But we have 19 20 not received any alternative amount. THE COURT: Pause, please, Mr. Smolinsky. 21 I'm not 22 sure I'm keeping up with you. You offered to set up a reserve 23 of twelve and a half million dollars for the county separate and apart from whatever you're doing with the federal EPA? 24

MR. SMOLINSKY: That's right, Your Honor. And just

Page 40 so we're clear, we're not talking about a specific account for 1 2 each claim. This is part of a global reserve for each disputed 3 claim. So everyone is protected but there's no separate account. 5 THE COURT: No segregated account. 6 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. So while we don't believe that any additional claim is necessary, we're 7 obviously not before you seeking to litigate an estimated 9 amount for these claims. But Onondaga County has been 10 unwilling so far to provide an alternative amount. 11 United Technologies Corporation -- this is a claim relating to the same site. Clearly, we believe that this claim 12 will go away under 502(b)(1)(B). 13 14 THE COURT: United Technologies -- or what was it, it's carrier division, is a PRP? 15 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. So, 16 17 again, we think this claim is duplicative of the reserves that 18 we already have and don't think that any additional amount is 19 necessary. 2.0 THE COURT: But you have not yet filed a formal 21 502(e) to blow it away. 22 MR. SMOLINSKY: We did, Your Honor. There's one 23 pending. 24 THE COURT: Oh, it's pending but not -- I haven't 25 heard it yet?

Page 41 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. 1 2 THE COURT: Okay. 3 MR. SMOLINSKY: And those are the two remaining 4 objections. So maybe we can pause here and allow comments. THE COURT: Okay. CourtCall, unmute anybody who's 5 6 now on mute. I'll hear first from Onondaga County. I should 7 say, is Onondaga County here in the courtroom? No. Is Onondaga County on the phone? 9 MR. MENDEZ (TELEPHONICALLY): Yes, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Okay. May I get your appearance, please? 11 MR. MENDEZ: Yes. This is senior deputy county attorney, Luis A. Mendez. And --12 13 THE COURT: Pause. Did you say Mendez? 14 MR. MENDEZ: That is correct. 15 THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Mendez. Proceed, please. 16 MR. MENDEZ: First --17 (Gap in audio) 18 MR. MENDEZ: -- question about whether or not the 19 county has been willing to provide Motors Liquidation with an 20 estimate. We have been in discussions with Motors Liquidation very early on. We're also pending receipt from EPA of the 21 22 remedial investigation of feasibility studies. To confirm, the 23 information that we needed to provide the estimate for one 24 prong of our claim, that has not happened. By the time we did 25 get back to Motors Liquidation, they advised that they were in

Page 42 active discussions with the EPA and were not going to entertain 1 2 additional discussions. 3 Be that as it may, the county's claims that are being 4 brought as claims -- the 12.5 million dollar reserves does not 5 relate to recovery of the EPA oversight costs of the entire 6 Onondaga Lake system of which Lake Creek is a subsite. 7 THE COURT: Pause, please, Mr. Mendez. You said it relates to EPA's and whose? 9 MR. MENDEZ: DEC's oversight --10 THE COURT: DEC? 11 MR. MENDEZ: Yes. Department of --12 THE COURT: DEC stands for Department of 13 Environmental Conservation? 14 MR. MENDEZ: That is correct. 15 THE COURT: Isn't that a state agency rather than a 16 county one? 17 MR. MENDEZ: It is a state agency. 18 THE COURT: Then help me understand why that's an 19 element of your claim. 2.0 MR. MENDEZ: Because both the USEPA and DEC have 21 pursued the county of other -- for a recovery of those 22 oversight costs. 23 THE COURT: The county is a PRP? I thought you were on offense. 24 25 MR. MENDEZ: The county has been named as a PRP in --

Page 43 throughout the Onondaga Lake site system. 1 We have a number of 2 different issues that had approached a resolution. As relate 3 to the Lower Ley Creek site, the county, along with Motors Liquidation, were also named as potentially responsible 5 parties. 6 THE COURT: Pause, please, Mr. Mendez, 'cause I must 7 confess, in my prep, I thought the nature of your claim was kind of like the federal EPA or the New York State Department 9 of Environmental Conservation was where you were trying to act 10 in an enforcement capacity. The allegations are that you're in 11 one of those four categories that makes you liable as a PRP? 12 MR. MENDEZ: Yes. And that was actually stated in 13 our proof of claim on the docket --14 THE COURT: Okay. 15 MR. MENDEZ: -- our proof of claim. 16 THE COURT: But then, if you're a PRP, why don't we 17 have 502(e) issues? 18 MR. MENDEZ: There may be 502 issues if the Lower Ley 19 Creek claim is resolved. If it is not resolved, then we would 20 contest that we have liability and apportionment issues with respect to the site under the -- it was a decision that 21 22 preclude a 502(e) motion. 23 THE COURT: Have you read my decisions in Chemtura 24 and Lyondell --

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, we have.

THE COURT: -- on that?

MR. MENDEZ: Yes, we have, Your Honor. And there are a number of potentially distinguishing factors with respect to the Lower Ley Creek claim that probably are better addressed in the confirmation phase. But with respect to the matter at hand, right now which was the amount for -- that would be estimated. We understood the debtors' proposed estimation with respect to the Lower Ley Creek portion of the claim to be a zero estimation. And we objected in large part based on our -on the debtors' failure to specify how they had reached that number in light of the procedure that they described in the disclosure statement for estimating the other environmental claims that they have thus far been able to resolve, if you apply the same procedures, could possibly arrive at a zero dollar for an estimation. That was the basis of our -essential basis for our objection was the zero explanation for that -- that portion of the Lower Ley Creek claim that seeks remedial related costs.

THE COURT: Mr. Mendez, did you or your county file a liquidated claim for any past out-of-pocket expenses that the --

MR. MENDEZ: Well --

THE COURT: -- county had to shell out?

24 MR. MENDEZ: We did not file an administrative claim

25 for those.

Page 45 THE COURT: Or a pre-petition claim? 1 2 MR. MENDEZ: Or a pre-petition claim. 3 THE COURT: Were there amounts that you already had to pay out? 4 MR. MENDEZ: Not for the Lower Ley Creek site itself, 5 6 Your Honor. 7 THE COURT: All right. MR. MENDEZ: Most about costs for the Lower Ley Creek 8 9 site really have related to this litigation. 10 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else, Mr. Mendez? MR. MENDEZ: No. Just to reiterate that our limited 11 objection is related to that aspect of the Lower Ley Creek 12 13 claim that spoke to the remedial costs not the oversight claims which is a 12.5 million dollar reserved amount. 14 15 THE COURT: Okay. Anything else? 16 MR. MENDEZ: No, not at this time, Your Honor. 17 THE COURT: Thank you. United Technologies? Is that 18 Mr. Carragher? 19 MR. CARRAGHER (TELEPHONICALLY): Yes, it is, Your 2.0 Honor. 21 THE COURT: Are you on? I guess you are. 22 MR. CARRAGHER: Yes, I am. 23 THE COURT: Go ahead. 24 MR. CARRAGHER: Your Honor, Daniel Carragher for 25 United Technologies. Your Honor, I, too, was confused by the Page 46 nature of the county's claim in preparing our papers and I hope 1 2 I didn't contribute to the Court's confusion. I felt that they 3 were outdated and forced with capacity as well whereas they are really in the same position as United Technologies as a PRP. But the basis for our objection, and everyone's 5 6 objections were to -- at the same time on rather short notice, 7 was not to increase or establish high reserves for our co-liability claims but to make sure the underlying claims 9 weren't artificially capped which would potentially harm us by 10 increasing our orphan share problem by application of some 11 artificial cap. 12 It does appear that the states and Honeywell did not 13 object to the capped amounts on their claims. And those are 14 two -- that have potential liability. The Town of Salina did 15 and there has been a resolution. If I could hear what that 16 resolution is that may resolve our concerns. 17 THE COURT: That's the Salina resolution? 18 MR. CARRAGHER: Yes, Your Honor. 19 THE COURT: Are you in a position to do that, Mr. 20 Smolinsky? 21 MR. SMOLINSKY: I think so, Your Honor. 22 THE COURT: You want to yield to Mr. Smolinsky for a 23 second, Mr. Carragher, to give him a chance to respond to your 24 inquiry? 25 I would appreciate that. MR. CARRAGHER: Yeah.

THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Smolinsky.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, the -- we've been in discussions with the Town of Salina. They did file an objection and subsequently withdrew the objection when they understood the treatment that we were providing in the motion. We are currently reserving for a liquidated claim for the Town of Salina in the amount of $41,076,137.63. That was the amount of the liquidated portion of their claim. And after discussions, they've agreed to withdraw their objection.

THE COURT: Okay. Does that help you, Mr. Carragher?

MR. CARRAGHER: It does, Your Honor. And I also saw primary amount, is we didn't know what portion of that was -if its cap -- if any, was attributable to Lower Ley Creek. And that's where we are -- had been in as a potentially responsible the New York State resolution appears to be on similar lines.

And our concern, as with the county's, on the EPA, which is the hear Mr. Smolinsky's presentation that the Onondaga Lake claims party. We would appreciate more information about that. I did would be reserved at the hundred million dollar level, most likely. And if there's some portion of that to allocate it to 21 Lower Ley Creek, that was -- would give us more comfort. We're 22 not being impaired by the application of these motion.

THE COURT: I feel a little bit like we're playing

Let's Make a Deal here in the courtroom. But if this exchange of information can be constructive, it's worth it. Mr.

Page 48 Smolinsky, can you or anybody else bring something to the table 1 2 on this? 3 MR. SMOLINSKY: I'm not sure what to propose, Your 4 Honor. I guess, we --5 THE COURT: No. I wasn't looking for a new proposal. 6 I was looking for you just giving information to Mr. Carragher. 7 If I have the full array of information after you and the EPA and Mr. Carragher speak, I'll rule. 9 MR. SMOLINSKY: I think you do, Your Honor. The 10 twelve million five -- I think there was a question on where that number came from. And that number was taken from 11 12 paragraph 8 in the addendum to the --13 THE COURT: The twelve and a half million being for the Town of Salina? 14 15 MR. SMOLINSKY: No. That's the Onondaga County. 16 THE COURT: Oh. Right. Forgive me. Excuse me. 17 MR. SMOLINSKY: That was --18 THE COURT: Salina got forty-one million. 19 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. 20 THE COURT: Okay. MR. SMOLINSKY: And obviously not -- they will be 21 22 reserved for. 23 THE COURT: Okay. Now is the twelve and a half 24 million dollars for Onondaga County for Onondaga Lake, Lower 25 Ley Creek or some other property or all of the above?

Page 49 MR. SMOLINSKY: It refers to the Onondaga Lake 1 2 Superfund site which I don't know enough to know whether that's 3 the entire --THE COURT: You don't know how broadly that site is defined? 5 6 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. 7 THE COURT: Okay. Okay. All right. Are you in a position yet where you need more information, Mr. Carragher, or 8 9 do you have to make your legal arguments? When I was doing my 10 prep --11 MR. CARRAGHER: No. I don't need any more 12 information, Your Honor. Our primary concern was that the --13 with the resolution of the Town of Salina, the USEPA claims and 14 Honeywell claims are not artificially capped. And since those 15 parties haven't objected and there's a two billion dollar 16 number still at this point being used for the USEPA then I 17 think that does satisfy our concerns. 18 THE COURT: Okay. Very good. I'm glad to hear that. 19 All right. So United Technologies' concerns have been 2.0 addressed. 21 MR. MENDEZ: If I may be heard one more time, if I 22 may impose on the Court? 23 THE COURT: Who is this speaking, please? 24 MR. MENDEZ: This is Mr. Mendez --25 THE COURT: Go ahead, Mr. Mendez.

MR. MENDEZ: -- for Onondaga County. We, too, have 1 2 benefited from the exchange of information here and understand 3 that there are continuing discussions and discussions that involve the Onondaga Lake site, generally, and perhaps the 5 Lower Ley Creek, in particular. And based on those discussions, I would only request that if something develops in 7 the next twenty-four hours or so, if debtors' counsel would communicate with us so that we can apprise our client and be in a better position to advise them on how to proceed with 10 Thursday's presentation. 11 THE COURT: Can I impose on you to do that, Mr. 12 Smolinsky? Any time by -- that by sharing information you can 13 make an objection go away, that's a pretty good deal. 14 MR. SMOLINSKY: We've tried to do that, Your Honor. 15 And we're happy to speak to Mr. Mendez going forward. 16 THE COURT: Okay. You got it, Mr. Mendez. 17 MR. MENDEZ: Thank you, Your Honor. 18 THE COURT: Okay. Well, then am I right, folks, that 19 on the partially liquidated claims, both objections have now 2.0 been resolved? 21 MR. MENDEZ: Yes, Your Honor. I would say that that 22 would be the case. 23 MR. CARRAGHER: Yes, Your Honor. I agree also. 24 THE COURT: Okay. Very good. All right. Then my 25 thought, Mr. Smolinsky, had been to take a recess to deal with

Page 51 any open issues. But I wonder if this is a good time for you to put any deals on the record or for counterparties' deals -to put whatever they want to say on the record. MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, I didn't intend to put the deals, the liquidated amounts, on the record unless Your Honor is interested. THE COURT: I don't need that. But I thought you were telling me that some people wanted to make remarks. MR. SMOLINSKY: I believe there are some parties --JPMorgan, specifically, had asked to reserve some time to make some comments. THE COURT: Mr. Toder, is that you or one of your quys? It's me this time, Your Honor. MR. TODER: THE COURT: Okay. Come on up. MR. TODER: But it's not a lot of time. THE COURT: I would hope not. MR. TODER: Thank you, Your Honor. Richard Toder, Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, for JPMorgan Chase Bank. Debtors advised us that, in fact, the estimation motion was not intended to cover JPMC's administrative claims. We had been listed in the exhibit with respect to two administrative claims which led to the confusion. And that indeed, the term loan avoidance claim was being fully reserved as a liquidated claim. The motion had been for unliquidated claims. We thought we were within that category. They fully agreed -- they've agreed to fully estimate.

Because of the close relationship between the estimated claims and the plan confirmation hearing, there are two and a half issues that remain. And in response to the Court's administrative order regarding the confirmation hearing, at the end of last week, we filed a motion seeking no more than five minutes of argument time. We have not been included among the parties. On what I think is fair to characterize as unique issues, the Court has not ruled on that. I was hoping that we could impose upon the Court or request of the Court that you allow us that five minutes. And the commitment that I will give to the Court is that if -- and I have some hope that this would be the case based on conversations with debtors' counsel -- that we're able to address these remaining -- as I refer to euphemistically as two and a half issues that we won't impose on the Court for even the five minutes. So I guess I'm requesting albeit the --THE COURT: All right. I don't have a yellow light and a red light. You can have the five minutes. I would hope that on an issue of this character, you don't have to use it.

MR. TODER: Me, too, but thank you very much.

THE COURT: All right.

Page 53 Enterprise Holdings Inc. Your Honor, just to put -- we were an 1 2 objector. Our objection was resolved. Your Honor offered to 3 have us put things on the record. We understand we're being taken off of the schedules and that we have a liquidated claim 5 for plan reserve purposes at the amount that we requested in 6 our objection. Thank you. 7 THE COURT: All right. Thank you, Mr. Koevary. 8 Smolinsky, did he get it right? 9 MR. SMOLINSKY: Yes, Your Honor. 10 THE COURT: Okay. Anyone else? MS. KUEHLER: Your Honor, Natalie Kuehler from the 11 12 U.S. attorney's office. 13 THE COURT: Your last name, please? 14 MS. KUEHLER: Natalie Kuehler. 15 THE COURT: Kuehler? 16 MS. KUEHLER: Yes. 17 THE COURT: Thank you. 18 MS. KUEHLER: On behalf of the United States. I want 19 to mention for the record that United States was -- there were 2.0 EPA claims or United States claims that were initially included 21 in both motions currently before the Court, the fully 22 unliquidated reserves motion and the partially unliquidated 23 claims motion. The United States and the debtors have reached 24 agreement to remove the United States claims that were part of 25 the fully unliquidated reserves motion from that motion so they would no longer be part of the unliquidated claims reserve but could be satisfied from the existing two billion dollar reserve established in the partially unliquidated claims motion.

In addition, I wanted to address Your Honor's questions about coordination between USEPA and the states on the various environmental liabilities of the debtors. As Your Honor knows, we have reached settlement on own site liabilities and submitted an environmental response -- a proposed Environmental Response Trust Consent Decree and Settlement Agreement. There was extensive cooperation with the relevant states on that. And in fact, fourteen of the states and a tribe --

THE COURT: I'm sorry. There was coughing while you were saying that last remark.

MS. KUEHLER: And fourteen states and a tribe are cosignatories on that agreement. In addition, we have reached settlement agreements for certain nonowned sites --

THE COURT: The distinction you're making -- stuff that GM owned at the time it filed its petition, on the one hand, and that it had once owned but no longer owned, on the other?

MS. KUEHLER: No. These are all -- there are certain properties within the environmental response trust that are being resolved although they are currently no longer owned by the debtor but they were at the time of the petition date.

Page 55 1 There are also --2 THE COURT: Oh, just since June of 2009. 3 MS. KUEHLER: Since June of 2009. THE COURT: Okay. 5 MS. KUEHLER: There are also some small parcels that 6 were never owned by the debtors but that for reasons of 7 efficiency were included in the environment response trust settlement agreement. And separate from that, there are six 9 settlement agreements that are also already on record with the 10 Court for sites that the debtors did not own at the petition 11 date. And at those separate six settlement agreements, we also 12 had extensive coordination with the states involved. 13 For the remaining environmental liabilities, there 14 are certain sites where there are no co-extensive state claims 15 and there are others where there are. The Onondaga related 16 claims, for example, which we've been discussing here today, we 17 have been coordinating closely with the New York DEC. So 18 depending on the site and the particular issues involved, there 19 has been extensive coordination. Or, where no coordination was 20 necessary, none. 21 THE COURT: Okay. Thank you. All right. 22 MS. LEARY: Your Honor, if I might? 23 THE COURT: Yes. 24 MS. LEARY: Maureen Leary from the New York attorney 25 general's office --

Page 56 1 THE COURT: Ms. Leary? 2 MS. LEARY: -- on behalf of the State of New York and 3 the Department of Environment Conservation. Just to confirm 4 Mr. Smolinsky's representation that our objection to the cap 5 motion has been withdrawn based upon the deletion of two of New 6 York's twenty-one claims in that motion in the exhibits. 7 Wine and Mr. Smolinsky have provided me with a letter, I believe. It's directed to the claims agent that would put 9 those two claims, along with the other New York claims, and 10 they will be reserved at the face amount --11 THE COURT: That New York State asked for? MS. LEARY: -- that New York State asserted. So I 12 13 just wanted to confirm that. 14 THE COURT: All right. 15 MS. LEARY: Is that okay? 16 THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Leary. 17 MS. LEARY: All right. 18 THE COURT: Anybody else? Okay. Let's review the 19 bidding. I think I need to rule on Sterniak, Sentry Insurance 20 and Sharyl Carter. Am I missing anything else? 21 MR. SMOLINSKY: Umm --22 THE COURT: Other objections having been withdrawn or 23 resolved. 24 MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct. With Ms. Woody's 25 claim being resolved, that's correct.

THE COURT: Okay. Under these circumstances, I don't need to take a recess if that is all that's left because my understanding is that the partially liquidated claims motion had previously been resolved vis-à-vis everyone except Onondaga County and United Technologies and those matters were resolved this morning.

what is left before me are three objections to the wholly unliquidated claims reserve motion, that of Mr.

Sterniak, Sentry Insurance and Sharyl Carter. Reservations of rights typically, and especially vis-à-vis 502(j), do not rise to the level of requiring reserves to be set up for them. And if 502(j) claims or entitlements were ever construed to be of that character, we could never reorganize Chapter 11 cases. We could never proceed with a Chapter 11 plan. The whole name of the game is to narrow the claims that are deserving of allowed claim treatment and to give those with genuinely allowed claims recoveries without undue delay. And accordingly, I'm allowing Sentry Insurance to have any rights it has under 502(j) and to reserve any other rights that it has under applicable law. But I'm ruling that they don't have any relevance to the reserves motion that's before me.

As I've said in other contexts, as early as the 363 decision on the 4th of July weekend back in 2009, it's unfortunate that there isn't enough value in the Old GM estate, the Motors Liquidation estate, to make distributions to equity holders. But that's the harsh reality of Old GM's financial circumstances. Where, as here, I'm not in a position to make full distributions to the unsecured creditor community, of course, I cannot authorize either distributions or reserves for the benefit of equity holders. So Mr. Sterniak's objection will be overruled for that reason.

GM stock. I think it's likely that there are many creditors who feel likewise. But that isn't the consideration that New GM provided to Old GM at the time of the 363 sale. And it's, in any event, a confirmation objection, if that, although I supposed I've telegraphed my thinking on the extent to which it would be a valid confirmation objection as well. So that objection is overruled.

Mr. Smolinsky, you and your folks are to paper these rulings at your earliest convenience including papering any revisions in the arrangements that were made as part of resolving claims consensually.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Yes, Your Honor. We'd like to ask your indulgence to perhaps wait twenty-four hours and then submit an order because we are dealing with a lot of claims here today that will allow us, if those claims are disallowed to pull them off of the schedules so there'll be fewer claims that are subject to that unliquidated claims reserve.

THE COURT: That's fine.

Page 59 1 MR. SMOLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor. The next 2 matter on the --3 THE COURT: Pause, please, Mr. Smolinsky. Anybody 4 who is here on just what we went through so far is free to leave if he or she would like to. 5 6 (Pause) 7 MR. CARRAGHER: I'll leave the phone call also. 8 Thank you, Your Honor. 9 THE COURT: Very well. 10 (Pause) 11 THE COURT: Okay, Mr. Smolinsky. Go ahead. MR. SMOLINSKY: Thank you, sir. The third matter on 12 13 the calendar is the seventeenth omnibus objections to claim. 14 Your Honor, this has been carried for some time. We have three 15 remaining responses to that motion. It's the Ohio Department 16 of Taxation, the state of Michigan and the IRS. I'm happy to 17 report that we have recently completed a stipulation with the 18 IRS that will resolve and disallow and expunge all of the IRS' 19 remaining claims. And we can just submit that stipulation to 2.0 Your Honor for consideration. 21 THE COURT: Okay. 22 MR. SMOLINSKY: The state of Michigan has agreed to 23 withdraw its claims and that would resolve the motion as to it. 24 And that remains -- that leaves us with the Ohio 25 Department of Taxation. The Ohio Department of Taxation has filed several claims against the debtors totaling in excess of fifty-one million dollars. The problem with those claims at this juncture is that they're filed as priority claims. So that would mean, Your Honor, that we would have to deal with them in connection with establishing cash reserves on the effective date which we cannot do. So we bring it before Your Honor today.

I think our papers are fairly straightforward. Under the MSPA, the -- all tax claims were assumed by New GM. The state of Ohio has been in discussions, negotiations with New GM. We have not been a party to those discussions. But it's clear that the parties are acting consistent with the fact that New GM has assumed that liability. I don't think that there's any dispute by the state of Ohio that this liability has been assumed. But they're not happy with allowing the disallowance of the claim.

THE COURT: Well, the real issue isn't that New GM said it would pay them. The issue -- and there was a question I wanted to ask the state of Ohio. And let me pause for a second. Is state of Ohio here in the courtroom? No. Is state of Ohio on the phone? Anybody from the state of Ohio on the phone? CourtCall, is everybody unmuted? CourtCall, are you still on?

THE OPERATOR: Yes, Your Honor. Everyone's unmuted.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to ask once again. Is there anybody here on behalf of the state of Ohio? All right. It seems to me, Mr. Smolinsky, the relevant issue isn't just that New GM agreed to pay them but that the sale order, the 363 order, said that Old GM was off the hook on them.

MR. SMOLINSKY: That's correct, Your Honor. And I'll note that the attorney general for the state of Ohio was certainly noticed with the sale motion. In fact, they appeared. They filed objections to the sale on a myriad of points. They were there when the order was papered. And paragraph 26 of the order clearly states that the debtors cannot be pursued for liabilities that have been assumed.

So I think Your Honor hit the nail on the head that there's no basis to continue to pursue the debtors on this claim.

THE COURT: Okay. One last time. Is anybody here on behalf of the state of Ohio before I rule on this issue? No response.

All right. In this contested matter in the Chapter 11 case of Motors Liquidation, Old GM, I have the debtors' motion to expunge the claim of the state of Ohio. The motion is granted.

As Mr. Smolinsky observed in oral argument, New GM agreed to assume the tax liability. As importantly or more so, frankly more so, the sale order, the 363 sale order, provided that Old GM was off the hook on liabilities such as this tax liability that New GM assumed. Accordingly, by reason of the sale order, New GM is not -- is liable on this to the extent it's otherwise liable under law. And Old GM is off the hook on them. Nothing in this ruling should be deemed to be a determination as to the obligation of New GM to the state of Ohio. But what I am ruling on today is that Old GM is not liable for it. Accordingly, the claim must be expunged.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor. We can submit an order.

THE COURT: Paper it with a written order the time to appeal from this determination will run from the time of entry of the order and not from this dictated decision.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Yes, Your Honor. We'll do that.

Your Honor, the last contested matter is the debtors' objection to proof of claim number 69998 filed by Thomas Smalley.

Your Honor, we were expecting to go forward with this motion on an uncontested basis until we received yesterday a copy of the objection -- or a response. So we stand before still wanting to go forward but we've had very little time to respond to the responses filed by Mr. Smalley.

THE COURT: I think I understand the issues. Mr.

Smalley, are you on the phone? Or, first, let me ask, Mr.

Smalley, are you in the courtroom? No response. Mr. Smalley, are you on the phone? No response. I am in a position to rule on this on the papers. But I'll need to take a recess till approximately 11:00 or shortly thereafter to do it. Do you want to supplement or make any verbal remarks, Mr. Smolinsky?

MR. SMOLINSKY: No, Your Honor. I just want to make sure that CourtCall opened the lines. And then what I would recommend is maybe we run through the uncontested calendar and let everybody else go that might be here on that. And then I'll stay while you prepare your decision.

THE COURT: Fair enough. CourtCall, I think you told me that you had unmuted all of the lines, am I correct?

THE OPERATOR: Yes, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to ask one more time.

Is Mr. Smalley on the phone or anybody on his behalf? No response. Okay. Take care of the rest of your business, Mr. Smolinsky. Then anybody who's here for matters other than the Smalley thing will be free to leave.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Thank you, Your Honor. On the uncontested matters, we have debtors' motion objecting to the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality. We have entered into a stipulation with the state of Michigan which we will submit to Your Honor for consideration.

We then have the debtors' motion to reject utility services agreement. Your Honor may recall that we filed a motion to simply reject that one agreement. There was a response filed asserting that this was part and parcel of a number of agreements that would constitute a single integrated contract. After reviewing the agreements, we agreed with that position and we've agreed with DTE that we would agree to reject all three of those agreements. And there'll be a stipulation reserving the parties' rights with respect to 365(h) rights as to whether it impacts it, that it's an integrated contract, rejection damages and the like. So we were just exchanging signature pages late last night and we'll submit that stipulation to Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Next we have the final motion, hopefully, on the splinter unions. And I think Mr. Karotkin will address this motion.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Karotkin?

MR. KAROTKIN: Good morning, Your Honor. Stephen

Karotkin, Weil Gotshal & Manges, for the debtors. Your Honor, the motion, I believe, is self-explanatory. It was served on all of the twenty-four remaining former union retirees who are represented by the Boilermakers.

As set forth in the motion, Your Honor, the settlement with the what we call the splinter unions has been made available to any of the unions that wanted to participate. All of the unions other than the Boilermakers have already decided to participate and orders were entered approving their participation as well as -- didn't go to bat for their former employees?

MR. KAROTKIN: That is correct, Your Honor. They didn't go to bat. They didn't want to be involved. We tried to get them to be involved but without success. So at the end of the day, the debtors and New GM took it upon themselves to make the settlement available to these people rather than basically shutting them out of their benefits.

So what this motion does, it provides these twentyfour former employees who were Boilermakers with the same benefits to be provided by New GM that are being provided to the other retirees who elected to participate in the settlement and also enables them to participate for their ratable proportion of the one billion dollar allowed general unsecured claims.

As I said, notice was given to all twenty-four members of the union who are now retirees. No response or pleadings were filed. As we set forth in our pleadings, we think that -- and, as well, New GM thinks that this is the fair and appropriate thing to do even though there's no requirement that it be done. And we simply would like the authority to move forward with that.

THE COURT: You did the right thing. It's approved.

MR. KAROTKIN: Thank you, sir.

THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Smolinsky?

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, the next motion on the calendar was a motion actually filed by Mr. Junso to have his claim be timely filed. Mr. Junso is one of the, I believe, the Campbell group that appealed the sale order. And we had agreed in connection with withdrawing the -- their agreement to withdraw that appeal that the debtors would not object to the timeliness of that claim. However, the committee was left with the full rights to do so. They have filed their response. There's been an agreement reached between the committee, the debtors and Mr. Junso that he will be able to file a claim in the next twenty days so that he gets in before the effective date, hopefully, of the plan and that would allow him to have a claim of up to five million dollars and would make them subject to the ADR procedures. So we have a stipulation that we could submit to Your Honor. THE COURT: Fair enough. That's going to be just fine.

MR. SMOLINSKY: We then have a number of objections to individual claims. We received no responses to these objections. We have Bobbie Jean Ford Pierce, Ella Lewis, Luceal Anderson, Bernadine Toliver, Audrey Magee. And maybe I could just open it up in case they're on the phone?

THE COURT: Okay. Are any of those folks in the courtroom? No. Anybody -- any of those folks on the phone? No response. Go ahead, Mr. Smolinsky.

MR. SMOLINSKY: So we'd ask for the reasons set forth in the motion that those claims be expunded and disallowed.

THE COURT: They will be. They will be disallowed.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, the debtors' eighteenth omnibus objections to claim -- that's another motion that's been hanging around for a while. We finally have been able to cajole the city and county of San Francisco to allow that to go forward on an uncontested basis. So that will close out eighteenth omnibus objection to claims.

THE COURT: Very well.

MR. SMOLINSKY: The twenty-seventh omnibus objections to claim -- we're only going forward with respect to the Jones' response. Mr. Jones has notified the debtors that he no longer has an objection to that motion. So we would like to submit an order disallowing and expunging that claim and adjourning with respect to the rest.

THE COURT: Yes, you may.

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, the debtors' 110th omnibus objection to claims — those are contingent coliability claims. We've been in discussions with the variety of the parties that remain, the New Flyer, Northrop, Cummins, Detroit Diesel, Expedition Helicopters. I think we're there on orders. So what I'd like to do is to see if we can get you all the orders in the next twenty-four hours. And if there's any issue, we would adjourn it to the March 9th hearing and continue to try to paper those agreements.

THE COURT: In other words, these would be orders 1 2 sustaining the objections because the counterparties recognize 3 that the debtors are entitled to it? MR. SMOLINSKY: For a variety of reasons, they want their own order whether it's a reservation under 502(j) or the 5 6 ability to pursue New GM even though they know our position 7 that they can't do that under the sale order. But for a variety of reasons, they want their own language in an 9 individual order. And we'll, of course, accommodate them. 10 THE COURT: Okay. That's fine. I saw a person 11 moving up. Did you want to be heard, ma'am? 12 MS. ELISON: Yes, please. 13 THE COURT: Come up to the microphone, would you 14 please? 15 MS. ELISON: Thank you. I appreciate it, Your Honor. 16 Good morning. 17 THE COURT: Good morning. Just state your name first 18 because a recording is being made of this. 19 MS. ELISON: Okay. My name is Julia M. Elison. I'm here on behalf of my mother, Claudette Elison. She had filed a 20 claim for General Motors, for the old General Motors, I 21 22 believe. And she -- I just wanted -- well, I'm here to make 23 sure that she was included into the omnibus, I believe, claim 24 as a claimant. And the omnibus claims -- I'm sorry. I'm 25 nervous.

Page 69 THE COURT: That's okay. Don't be nervous. 1 2 MS. ELISON: I'm very nervous, Your Honor. 3 THE COURT: Do you know whether the debtors wanted to 4 expunge -- that is, to say that claim wouldn't be allowed 5 today? 6 MS. ELISON: Well, she received a letter in the mail. 7 And I didn't understand what it was. She had passed away. It will be a year tomorrow. And so she had started receiving --9 well, I have received letters in the mail on her -- on this. 10 And this is all brand new. I didn't have any knowledge of what 11 was read. I had tried to talk to -- seek legal counseling in 12 Michigan. We're from Michigan -- I'm sorry. 13 THE COURT: You came all the way from Michigan? 14 MS. ELISON: Yes. We came all the way here from 15 Michigan just to make sure that she was included with the 16 claims that was filed -- that was here for the General 17 Motors --18 THE COURT: Okay. 19 MS. ELISON: -- account. 2.0 THE COURT: Did you say your name was Ms. Elison? 21 MS. ELISON: Yes. Yes, Your Honor. 22 THE COURT: And is your mom also Ms. Elison? 23 is --24 MS. ELISON: Yes, Your Honor. 25 THE COURT: Okay.

Page 70 MS. ELISON: Her name is Claudette Elison. 1 2 THE COURT: Claudette. 3 MS. ELISON: Yes. THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Smolinsky, I don't know if, 5 under these circumstances, you're prepared to respond and you 6 know about Ms. Elison's mother's claim. I quess the thought I 7 have is if you can respond substantively, okay. But otherwise, perhaps an approach would be to say that for the time being her 9 rights are preserved and that if you have moved to expunge it 10 for a failure to respond, you'll just continue it as you do so 11 many others. 12 MS. ELISON: Okay. 13 THE COURT: Mr. Smolinsky? 14 MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, the good news is in the 15 courtroom we have Carrianne Basler and an iPad. So, I think 16 that while Your Honor takes a break, we can talk to Ms. Elison, 17 find out where her claim resides and maybe it could be resolved 18 today. We'll find out what's going on with it and report back 19 to Your Honor when you come back --2.0 THE COURT: Good. You can do it while I'm taking the recess on the other matter. 21 22 MR. SMOLINSKY: Yes, Your Honor. 23 MS. ELISON: Thank you. 24 THE COURT: Okay. Do we have any other further 25 business before I take the recess?

MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, we just have the new omnibus objections. That's omnibus objection 146 to 209. As usual, we have agreed to adjourn those that have filed responses and seek orders with respect to those that have not responded.

I'll just note that the 208th and 209th omnibus -you may notice in the agenda that there are lots of them that are being carried. Those are the 502(e)(1)(B). And we believe that a lot of those will go away in connection with the EPA agreements. But we'll be back before Your Honor on the 29th.
United Technologies, for example, is on that motion. And so we'll be back before Your Honor on the 29th to address those matters.

MR. SMOLINSKY: I think that's right, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Okay. We'll be in recess. I would like

THE COURT: Okay. Does that take care of it?

everybody back here by 11:15 on the clock up there. We're in recess.

(Recess from 11:04 a.m. until 11:27 a.m.)

THE CLERK: All rise.

THE COURT: Have seats, please. All right. Ladies and gentlemen, after the recess, I'm now in a position to rule on the objection to the claim of Thomas Smalley. I assume that Mr. Smalley is still not on the phone. The motion's been decided on the papers.

(Pause)

THE COURT: In the jointly administered Chapter 11 cases of debtor, Motors Liquidation Company, formerly General Motors Corporation, which, as in the past, I'll refer to as Old GM, I have the debtors' objection to the claim of Thomas Smalley. The claim arises from a car accident that took place in 1997, twelve years before the filing of Old GM's bankruptcy case. And the objection to the claim gives rise to the contested matter that I have to decide today.

Mr. Smalley never filed a lawsuit against Old GM and, as I'll discuss, the statute of limitations with respect to his claim passed. In addition, Mr. Smalley filed his proof of claim late despite receiving actual notice of the bar date.

For those two reasons, I necessarily must conclude, therefore, that his claim must be disallowed. My findings of fact, conclusions of law and bases for the exercise of my discretion in connection with these determinations follow.

First, as facts, I find that Mr. Smalley, a resident of the state of Iowa, was injured in a motor vehicle accident on September 27, 1997, almost twelve years before Old GM's Chapter 11 filing. He was injured in DuPage County, Illinois while driving a Buick Regal, a vehicle manufactured by Old GM. According to Mr. Smalley, the accident occurred due to a loss of steering and control of the Buick that resulted in a roll over accident. Mr. Smalley did not file a lawsuit against Old

GM at the time, however, or since.

On June 1st, 2009, Old GM commenced its Chapter 11 case in this court. On June 19, 2009, eighteen days later, Mr. Smalley contacted the debtors' customer assistance center and notified the debtors of his accident for the first time. As a result of Mr. Smalley's call to the assistance center, he received actual notice of the bar date order by mail.

The bar date order states that proofs of claim against the debtors must be actually received on or before the bar date. And it further explains that any creditor who fails to comply with the bar date order will be forever barred from asserting the claim or filing a proof of the claim. In addition to providing actual notice of the bar date, the debtors also provided notice by publication in several national newspapers. However, the important thing here is that he got actual notice of the bar date by mail.

On February 8, 2010, three months after the bar date had come and gone and approximately twelve and a half years after his accident, Mr. Smalley then filed a proof of claim against Old GM. On December 12th, 2010, Mr. Smalley was engaged by Old GM to discuss settlement of his claim of which he declined. He has asserted that his claim is worth between fifteen million dollars and eighty million dollars. That's 8-0 million dollars.

Turning now to my conclusions of law and bases for the exercise of my discretion. I'm forced to expunge this claim for two separate reasons: first, because it is time barred; and second, because the proof of claim was filed late.

It's a well settled law in this district, the Southern District of New York that bankruptcy courts may determine issues of law with respect to personal injury claims such as issues as to whether or not the statute of limitations has run. See In re U.S. Lines Inc., 262 B.R. 223 at 234 (S.D.N.Y. 2001). As Judge Lifland explained in Chateaugay, a finding that the claim is subject to disallowance as a matter of law is not tantamount to a determination on the merits of the personal injury tort. In re Chateaugay Corp., 111 B.R. 67, 76 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1997).

To state the obvious, my subject matter jurisdiction to decide a claims allowance matter is clear under 28 U.S.C.

1334. And by reason of that case law, I likewise have the power as a bankruptcy judge to decide the issue under 28 U.S.C.

157 even though I don't have Article 3 status.

Determining which statute of limitations to apply is not as debatable as it might be since there are only two possibilities and neither one of them is long enough to accommodate a claim that was filed twelve years after the accident occurred. However, I'll briefly explain the analysis.

As I discussed in my decision in Adelphia

Communications Corporation where, as here, a Court is exercising bankruptcy jurisdiction over state law claims under 28 U.S.C. Section 1334(b), the Court applies the choice of law rules of the forum state, which is New York, of course, to determine the applicable statute of limitations. See Adelphia Communications Corp. v. Bank of America, In re Adelphia Communications Corp., 364 B.R. 24, 57, Note 136 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007).

New York has a statute of limitations "borrowing statute", New York CPLR 202. That statute provides that "an action based upon a cause of action accruing without the state" -- and I say, parenthetically, the state there is New York State -- "cannot be commenced after the expiration of the time limited by the laws of either New York State or the place without New York State where the cause of action accrued except that where the cause of action accrued in favor of a resident of New York State, the time limited by the laws of New York State shall apply. In many cases, when I was quoting the statute, I substituted the words "the State", the cryptic drafting which New York's legislator in its wisdom used when drafting the statute, and plugged in "New York State" which, of course, makes much more sense to the reader.

Under New York law and assuming that Mr. Smalley is asserting a strict products liability claim or a negligence claim, the two real bases for his claim, the cause of action "accrued", as that expression is used in New York CPLR 202, at the place where the accident occurred. Martin v. Julius Dierck Equipment Company, 43 N.Y.2d 583, 588 (1978). I note parenthetically that this is a rule that's applicable to negligence and product liability claims. It is not the same rule that would apply to a contract claim or a claim for a purely economic injury.

In New York, the statute of limitations for both negligence and products liability claims is three years. See New York CPLR 214(5); and Victorson v. Bock Laundry Machine Company, 37 N.Y.2d 395, 404 (1975). However, in my view, it's the statute of limitations of Illinois where the accident took place that controls. And under Illinois law, that statute of limitations for both negligence and products liability is two years. See 735 Ill. Stat. 513-202; and Golla v. General Motors Corp., 657 N.E.2d 894, 903 (Ill. 1995) which holds that the two-year statute of limitations for product liability claims begins to run at the time of the accident.

Under Illinois' shorter statute of limitations, Mr.

Smalley's claim is time barred. However, while I think it's pretty clear under the New York law, CPLR 202, that the place where the cause of action accrued is controlling and that's Illinois, I note that even under New York's longer three year statute of limitations, his claim would still be time-barred. Thus, the claim must be disallowed because it's barred under the statute of limitations.

Similarly, the claim cannot be allowed because the proof of claim wasn't timely filed. Section 502(b)(9) of the Code provides that a claim will be disallowed if the proof of such claim is not timely filed and a party has objected to the claim. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(3), a proof of claim isn't timely filed unless it's done prior to the deadline fixed by the bankruptcy court. As Chief Judge Gonzalez explained in XO Communications, "A bar date is not to be disregarded by claimants since it's meant to function as a statute of limitations and effectively disallows late claims in order to provide the debtor and its creditors with finality to the claims process to permit the debtor to make swift distributions under the plan." In re XO Communications, Inc.,

Despite receiving actual notice by mail, Mr.

Smalley's proof of claim was filed three months late. And he filed it late without any explanation. In particular, he's made no showing that this delay was excusable. The Supreme Court has held that excusable neglect hinges on five factors:

(1) the degree of prejudice to the debtors; (2) the length of the delay and its potential impact on judicial proceedings; (3) the reason for the delay including whether it was within the reasonable control of the claimant; (4) whether the claimant acted in good faith; and (5) if a claimant had counsel whether a claimant should be penalized for his or her counsel's mistake or neglect. See Pioneer Investment Services Company v.

2 Brunswick Associates, 507 U.S. 380, 385-387 (1993).

The Second Circuit has noted that "the equities will rarely, if ever, favor a party who fails to follow the clear dictates of a Court rule." In re Enron Corp., 419 F.3d 115, 122-123 (2d Cir. 2005).

The Second Circuit went on to explain that the Pioneer factors are not to be equally weighted and that the excuse provided by the litigant may be given the greatest importance. That's Enron, too, at the same page.

Here, the relevant factors weigh heavily against allowing Mr. Smalley's claim. First, the prejudice to the debtors who, of course, are acting for all of the other creditors in the case, is significant. Reserving fifteen million dollars in this case, much less eighty million dollars, would be severely prejudicial to Old GM's other creditors given the need to make distributions available to them and the fact that we have a confirmation hearing for this case coming up this Thursday.

Also, since the claim is clearly time-barred, it would be an unnecessary hardship to GM's -- Old GM's other creditors to force Old GM to expend more resources in order to litigate a claim that could never be allowed anyway.

Next, while the delay was only three months, or was a relatively small three months, the delay of even that amount was not explained. And it's in the context of a creditor having been given actual notice after he actually called and was in contact with the debtors.

Third, Mr. Smalley has provided no reason for the delay. This is especially significant because the Second Circuit explained in its Enron decision that this factor should be weighed most heavily.

Finally, while Mr. Smalley has at least seemingly acted in good faith, this factor alone is insufficient to outweigh the other factors.

The claimant has not made the required showing of reasonable neglect.

For the reasons I've just stated, the debtors' objection to Mr. Smalley's claim must be sustained and the claim must be disallowed. The time to appeal this decision will run from the time of entry of the resulting order and not from the time of this dictated decision.

I note that, to their great credit, the debtors apparently had some discussions with Mr. Smalley vis-à-vis a possible settlement notwithstanding the very apparent weaknesses in this claim. I won't prohibit the debtors from doing so. And if the debtors want to and the creditors' committee doesn't voice an objection, if they want to try to still resolve this in the near future before the order is entered, I don't mind. But if Mr. Smalley requires me to act

Page 80 in accordance with this decision, he's going to have to live 1 2 with the decision that I just dictated. 3 Am I correct, Mr. Smolinsky and Mr. Karotkin, that we have no further business? 5 MR. SMOLINSKY: Your Honor, Joe Smolinsky for the 6 debtors. I just want to provide Your Honor with an update on 7 Ms. Elison. THE COURT: Oh, yes. 9 MR. SMOLINSKY: We did take the opportunity to speak 10 to her. Her claim is subject to omnibus claim objection number 11 147. Unfortunately, that's an objection seeking to reclassify claims into equity interests. Ms. Elison's mother filed a 12 13 claim --14 THE COURT: For stock she held? 15 MR. SMOLINSKY: -- reciting the fact that she had 16 stock. And we see no other claims. We discussed with Ms. 17 Elison the priority scheme under the Bankruptcy Code and the 18 upcoming confirmation and the impact of that. We offered Ms. 19 Elison the opportunity to consult an attorney before we enter 20 the order. She took us up on it. So we'll adjourn the motion as to her till March 29th. And I assume that she's going to be 21 22 comforted in corroborating what we explained to her. And --23 THE COURT: Okay. MR. SMOLINSKY: -- it's unfortunate but that's --24 those are the facts.

Page 81 THE COURT: Ms. Elison, I see you're still in the 1 2 back of the room. I talked about this in a different context. 3 Unfortunately, until and unless GM's creditors get paid, there 4 isn't much we can do about stockholders. But what the debtors 5 have offered to do is to give you a chance to get your own advice on that and nothing is going to be done to you or your 6 7 family today. MS. ELISON: Okay. 9 THE COURT: Thank you. 10 MS. ELISON: Okay. Thank you, Your Honor. 11 THE COURT: Thank you. Okay. Anything else, Mr. 12 Smolinsky? 13 MR. SMOLINSKY: I think that's a wrap, Your Honor. 14 THE COURT: Okay. Then we're adjourned. (Whereupon these proceedings were concluded at 11:49 a.m.) 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25
